Art Unit: 1656

This Office Action is in response to the paper filed August 1, 2007.

Claims 1-14 are currently pending. The Examiner has withdrawn Claims 3, 4, 6, and 8-14 from further consideration because these claims are drawn to non-elected inventions. Claims 1, 2, 5, and 7 are currently under examination, elected without traverse in the reply filed on March 26, 2007.

Benefit of priority is set to April 21, 2003.

Withdrawal of Rejections:

The rejection of Claims 1, 2, 5, and 7 under 35 U.S.C. 101, is withdrawn.

The rejection of Claims 1, 2, 5, and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, is withdrawn.

Maintenance of Rejections, modified in response to amendments:

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Note that Liu et al.'s FIR is cited at pages 4, line 22 of the specification, and at page 10 last paragraph through page 11 FIR is cited with other proteins known to interact with FUSE binding protein.

Art Unit: 1656

Claims 1, 2, 5, and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Liu et al. (2000; The FBP interacting repressor targets TFIIH to inhibit activated transcription. Molecular Cell 5: 331-341).

Liu et al. teach FUSE binding protein interacting repressor (FIR) consisting of SEQ ID NO: 2 – see the amino acid sequence at Fig. 2A and the sequence alignment attached to this Office Action. Liu et al. also made derivatives of FIR. For example, Liu et al. made deletion derivatives consisting of amino acids 145-542 and 1-377 of FIR (page 339, left col., line 26) and addition derivatives of SEQ ID NO: 2 with GST or His tag (page 339, left col., line 24), or a combination of the two – GAL4 chimeras comprising amino acids 1-121, 55-542, or 121-542 of FIR (page 339, left col., lines 28-29) and GST chimeras comprising amino acids 1-113 (page 339, right col., "Helicase Assay"). Chimeras comprising N-terminally truncated FIR are also considered to be substitution derivatives of FIR. At page 339, left col., para. 4, wherein Liu et al. teach that the proteins were placed in sodium phosphate (buffer), NaCl, Triton X, PMSF, DTT and in the right col, top as drawn to elution of FIR into sodium phosphate buffer, NaCl, and imidazole and at para. 2, placed in BC-100 buffer, HEPES, NaCl, Triton X.

Therefore, Liu et al. teach a composition of FIR, an agent that interacts with FUSE binding protein with at least one pharmaceutical agent as set forth in claim 1 (Claim 1). FIR consists of SEQ ID NO: 2 and Liu et al. made derivatives of SEQ ID NO: 2 comprising amino acid deletions, substitutions, and additions, and partial fragments thereof (Claim 2). At page 15, paras. 2 and 3 of the specification, the specification states that a protein can be prepared to have a form that can be introduced into cells without changing structure and function of the protein and such introduction can be made by a micro-injection method. Thus, the purified form of FIR is in a form for introduction into cells via microinjection, for example (Claims 5). Claim 7 is included in this rejection because the intended use of the product does not provide a patentable limitation to the product as claimed.

Art Unit: 1656

The demonstration of a new activity for a known protein is considered to be further characterization of the known protein and is not evidence of novelty for the protein.

Applicants urge that Claim 1 is drawn to a pharmaceutical composition and that Liu et al. do not disclosed the composition of Claim 1. The Examiner notes that the composition of Claim 1 comprises FIR and a buffer, for example, that need not be suitable/sterile for injection into a subject. None-the-less, the elution of FIR into sodium phosphate buffer, NaCl, and imidazole as set forth on page 339, top right col. would meet this limitation if presented.

New Objection:

Claim 5 is objected to because of the following informalities: Claim 5 depends from withdrawn claims. Appropriate correction is required.

No Claims are allowed.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
